

Ronny Whyte, Producer
Joan Uttal Anderson, Co-Producer
Present

“An Afternoon With Corky Hale”

WHO
AND WHAT:

Midtown Jazz At Midday, Ronny Whyte, Producer and Joan Uttal Anderson, Co-Producer present “An Afternoon With Corky Hale,” featuring the critically acclaimed and renowned Jazz Pianist and Vocalist, Corky Hale. Hale will be accompanied by Boots Maleson on Bass and Brian Brake on Drums.

Created by the late Edmund Anderson in 1982, these Jazz sessions feature artists in the Sanctuary of Saint Peter’s Church. The concerts last for approximately one hour.

WHERE: Midtown Jazz At Midday at Saint Peter’s Church; 619 Lexington Avenue (at 54th Street; between Lexington Avenue and 3rd Street); Manhattan, NY 10022-4610. Take E and M trains to Lexington Avenue station; 6 train to 51st Street station.

WHEN: Wednesday, April 27, 2011 from 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.

HOW: A donation of $10 is requested. For further information, please call Saint Peter’s Church at 212-935-2200 or visit online at www.saintpeters.org, click on Jazz, then click on Midtown Jazz. To learn more about Corky Hale, please visit the website, www.corkyhale.com.