

CORKY HALE TO MAKE HER LINCOLN CENTER DEBUT

Corky Hale will make her Lincoln Center Debut as part of The 22nd New York Cabaret Convention, to be presented by the Mabel Mercer Foundation in the Rose Theater, Frederick P. Rose Hall, Home of Jazz at Lincoln Center, Broadway at 60th Street, New York, New York. Hale will appear on the program as part of the Gala Opening Night on Thursday, October 20, 2011 at 6:00 p.m. Hale, who will be accompanied by pianist Ronny Whyte, will sing the songs, “Now And Then,” music by Mike Stoller and lyrics by Iris Rainer Dart from the Broadway show, “The People In The Picture” and “I Want To Be Happy,” music by Vincent Youmans and lyrics by Irving Caesar from the musical, “No, No, Nanette.” For more information about the three day cabaret convention, to be held from October 20 – 22, 2011, please visit the website, www.mabelmercer.org. To purchase tickets, please call the Mabel Mercer Foundation at 212-980-3026.